

Licence for FexMaster product

The name of the software the licence is issued for is FexMaster („product“, „software“).

Licence is issued to a company and always to a user. If the licence is purchased to the company (for company name) it can be used just in the company. The licence is not allowed to be used in other company than it has been purchased for.

If the licence is issued for a user and not for a company – the company is not mentioned just the mentioned user is allowed to use it and no other user is allowed to use it.

The licence is sold for a period of time mentioned in the name of the licence and also in the description by the product.

The licence can be used only on one computer – machine.

Each licence must be activated after software installation and connection to the server <https://licence.imcep.com> must be allowed from the computer for the activation purpose where the software is installed. The period of the licence it was purchased for starts to run as soon as it is activated. The activation should be done within 6 months after it is purchased. There is no guarantee the licence can be activated after this period after purchasing.
